

The Young Adult Institute, located in Gramercy Park, held its annual Christmas party last week. YAI is a health and human service organization serving individuals with disabilities and their families. Pictured from left to right are (top row) Gramercy Park Block Association President Arlene Harrison, Jules Feiman, Director of Human resources; Juan Rosario, Thomas Renart, Elsa Nicholaas and Regina Zacker. In the bottom row: Siobbann Flynn-Higgins with two residents, Greta Horn and Florence Rogers.