

Kids Carol at Gramercy Park Hotel

By Maciej Wroblewski

The traditional Children's Christmas Caroling, sponsored by the Trustees of the Park, was held on December 15th. Once again the young carolers were accompanied by the Gramercy Brass, led by their music director, John Henry Lambert. The caroling was led by Lottie Porch.

The youngsters gathered at 7:15 p.m. in the south lobby of The Gramercy Park Hotel, where they were greeted by hotel personnel representing the hotel manager, Ed Maynard.

They sang carols in front of the hotel and then entered the Park, where they sang carols around the Christmas tree. They then proceeded to the Salvation Army Parkside Residence on Gramercy Park South, where they continued to sing carols and enjoyed refreshments provided by Major Randall Davis.

"Once again the Children's Christmas Caroling in Gramercy Park was a very special event," said Trustee Arlene Harrison, who organized the evening. "The Trustees are very grateful to our community partners, the Gramercy Park Hotel and the Salvation Army Parkside Residence for all they have done."

Photos by Eliza

